Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee Charter

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (the “Committee”) is a committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of AutoNation, Inc. (the “Company”). The primary function of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by performing the duties described in this Corporate Governance Committee Charter.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

Corporate Governance Guidelines and Codes of Ethics and Conduct

- Develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance guidelines for the Company (the “Guidelines”), which shall be consistent with any applicable laws, regulations and listing standards. Thereafter, review annually, or more frequently as appropriate, the corporate governance principles and practices set forth in the Guidelines, in comparison to the governance standards identified by leading governance authorities and the evolving needs of the Company, and make recommendations to the Board with respect to any appropriate amendment to the Guidelines.
- Consider other corporate governance issues that arise from time to time, and advise the Board with respect to such corporate governance issues.
- Periodically review the Company’s codes of ethics and conduct (the “Codes”) for directors, officers and employees, and approve amendments to the Codes to the extent deemed appropriate by the Committee.

Evaluation of the Board and Management

- Establish the evaluation criteria for the annual Board self-evaluation, including the criteria for determining whether the Board and Board committees are functioning effectively, and implement the process for annual evaluations.
- Oversee the evaluation of the Board and management and report to the Board on the performance and effectiveness of the Board.

Assess Board Membership Needs and Composition and Recommend Nominees

- Assess from time to time the appropriate balance of skills and characteristics required of Board members.
- Identify, evaluate and recommend candidates to the entire Board for nomination and election to the Board. Nominees for Director shall be selected on the basis of, among other things, broad experience, financial expertise, wisdom, integrity, ability to make independent analytical inquiries, understanding of the Company’s business environment, the Nominee’s ownership interest in the Company, and willingness and ability to devote adequate time to Board duties, all in the context of assessing the needs of the Board at that point in time and with the objective of ensuring diversity in the background, experience and viewpoints of Board members.

- Review Board candidates recommended by shareholders on the same basis as if such candidates were recommended by one or more of our directors or other sources.
- Assist the Board in determining whether continued Board service by a Director who has had a material change in his or her principal occupation would be appropriate.
- After consultation with the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, recommend to the Board for approval all assignments of committee members, including designations of the chairs of the committees.
- Assist the Board in determining and monitoring whether or not each Director and prospective director is an “independent director” within the meaning of any laws, regulations or listing standards applicable to the Company.
- Review and monitor the size and composition of the Board to ensure that a substantial majority of directors are independent directors, as determined by the Board.

Other Matters

- Review and evaluate the Company’s programs, policies and practices relating to social and environmental issues and receive updates from the Company’s management team responsible for significant social and environmental activities.
- Recommend that the Board establish such special committees as may be necessary, appropriate or advisable to address ethical, legal or other matters that may arise.
- Address or take action with respect to any other matter specifically delegated to the Committee from time to time by the Board.
