

Titan International Announces Update on Steelworkers Union Vote

QUINCY, Ill.—Titan International, Inc. (NYSE: TWI) announces an update on the status of the Steelworkers Union vote. Due to weather and schedules, the Steelworkers have changed the day to vote on the proposed contract to March 15, 2013. They have scheduled informational meetings next week at two of the plants with the third plant having meetings the following week. Voting will be on March 15, which is an update from the previous date of March 4, 2013.

Titan International, Inc., a holding company, owns subsidiaries that supply wheels, tires, assemblies and undercarriage products for off-highway equipment used in agricultural, earthmoving/construction and consumer (including all terrain vehicles) applications. For more information, visit www.titan-intl.com.

Additional assets available online:

<http://titan-intl.investorroom.com/news-releases?item=30>