"We're thrilled to bring Groupon To Go to Denver and give our customers easy access to the food they want, when they want it," said Dan Roarty, senior vice president of food and drink, Groupon. "Denver is a thriving, modern city with an amazing local restaurant scene and many of these places haven't offered delivery until now."

Groupon To Go is offering delivery for more than 100 local restaurants, including Cuba Cuba, Fat Jack's, Hapa Sushi, Sushi Hai and Tony P's. Customers can pay for their order using a credit card or Apple Pay and track the delivery to their location using a digital map to know exactly when their food will arrive. Groupon will also offer great delivery deals, including savings off entire orders, popular menu items and more.
