About Tiffany Haddish

Tiffany Haddish is quickly establishing herself as one of the most sought-after comedic talents in television and film. Haddish was recently seen starring in Universal's Girls Trip alongside Jada Pinkett Smith, Queen Latifah and Regina Hall. Girls Trip had the highest opening for an R rated comedy in the past two years and VanityFair.com called Haddish "the funniest woman alive." She will next be seen starring alongside Tracy Morgan in the new TBS show, The Last O.G and recently wrapped production alongside Kevin Hart for Universal's Night School. She most recently released her memoir "The Last Black Unicorn," which made the New York Times best-seller list. Additionally, Haddish is breaking barriers and became the first black female stand-up comedian to host Saturday Night Live, which she did this November, coming off the success of 2017 and Girls Trip. Upcoming projects she is currently developing include Limited Partners for Paramount which she will executive produce and star in and The Temp for Universal which she will star and serve as executive producer on as well.

About Groupon

While more than 80 percent of us plan to celebrate with our partner on February 14, a majority of us do the same exact thing year after year. In addition, one out of four people describes these traditions as boring, according to a new Groupon survey of 2,000 Americans.

So what's the fix? Nearly 80 percent of respondents said that sharing an experience after dinner with their partner is the key to having the perfect Valentine's Day. The top experiences that participants said they'd like to try included: attending a concert, getting locked in an escape room, touring a cultural attraction and taking a cooking class.

"Valentine's Day is coming up fellas, so I'm going to give y'all some advice. Ladies don't want the same old thing. We want our men to get creative. Let's do an exotic trip for two somewhere; let's get a couple's massage; let's get locked in an escape room; let's get weird," says Haddish in the
