"Feels Like Home may be the most focused album I've ever made," Sheryl Crow says of her debut album for Warner Bros. Records. "All of my albums have had a few different styles going on in them, and this album definitely has a few different takes on what country music means to me, but not calculatedly so. First and foremost, I just wanted to make sure that for this album I wrote about things that I really knew about—subjects that hit close to home." Full of great storytelling and featuring some of the most powerful and heartfelt vocals of Crow's career, Feels Like Home is literally an album that this proud daughter of Kennett, Mo. was born to make.

Sheryl Crow is a nine-time Grammy[®] Award-winner and has been nominated for an additional 27 Grammys and has released seven studio albums (each charting Top 10, four of them platinum-plus), a quadruple-platinum greatest hits collection and a Christmas album. Her latest album, Feels Like Home, was recorded in Nashville, Tenn. and was co-produced by Grammy Award-winner Justin Niebank. Crow is a cancer survivor, has performed for presidents and is a passionate supporter of a variety of environmental and health-related charities. With over 35 million records sold to date and a combined 40 Top 10s on the Billboard Hot 100, Adult Top 40, Adult Contemporary, Mainstream Top 40, Triple A (with the most No.1 singles among women in the chart's 17-year history) and Hot Country Songs charts, Crow now has a Top 20 solo country single to add to her list of accolades with her current hit, "Easy."
