Equitrans Midstream Corporation Announces Appointment of Two New Directors

Release Date:
2/3/2020

CANONSBURG, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Equitrans Midstream Corporation (NYSE: ETRN) (Company) announced today that its Board of Directors has appointed Sarah M. Barpoulis, president of Interim Energy Solutions, LLC; and D. Mark Leland, former president of El Paso Midstream Group, Inc., to the Company's Board of Directors, effective February 1, 2020, and January 30, 2020, respectively. With these appointments, ETRN has expanded its Board size to eight directors.

"As we begin our second year as a standalone midstream company, we want to welcome Sarah and Mark to the E-Train – and look forward to their new and individual perspectives as members of our Board," said Thomas F. Karam, chairman and chief executive officer of ETRN. "Sarah brings significant risk management and business planning expertise through her work as an energy advisor and consultant, along with substantial commercial experience from her tenure with PG&E National Energy Group. Mark has an abundance of midstream industry knowledge stemming from his various executive roles with El Paso Corporation and also considerable directorship experience with both private and public energy companies, including former Rice Midstream Partners LP."

About Sarah Barpoulis

Ms. Barpoulis has been a senior executive and entrepreneur in the energy sector for nearly 30 years. She is the founder and president of Interim Energy Solutions, LLC, an advisory service firm providing asset management and risk management consulting, and litigation support services to the energy sector. Ms. Barpoulis previously served as senior vice president, energy trading for PG&E National Energy Group from 1997-2003; and also held various executive roles, including director, bulk power trading and vice president, USGEN Power Services with U.S. Generating Company/PG&E Generating from 1991-1997. She is an independent director of South Jersey Industries; and Educare DC; and previously served as an independent director of SemGroup Corporation (until its December 2019 merger with Energy Transfer, LP) and Reliant Energy. Ms. Barpoulis began her professional career as a consultant in the public policy and management group for Temple, Barker & Sloane, Inc. Ms. Barpoulis has a Master of Business Administration degree from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College and a Bachelor of Science in Engineering degree from Princeton University.

About Mark Leland

Mr. Leland was interim chief executive officer of Deltic Timber Corporation from 2016-2017, prior to the company's merger with Potlatch to form PotlatchDeltic Corporation in 2018. Previously, Mr. Leland held several executive-level roles at El Paso Corporation from 1986-2012, including president, El Paso Midstream Group; executive vice president and chief financial officer, El Paso Corporation; senior vice president and chief financial officer, El Paso Production Company; vice president and chief financial officer, El Paso Field Services; and director, business development.
