

TAX FILING

HMLP has elected to be treated as a C-Corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes (our investors receive a Form 1099 and not a Schedule K-1)

Distributions we pay to U.S. unitholders will be treated as a qualified dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent the distributions come from earnings and profits (“E&P”) and as a nondividend distribution or a return of capital (“ROC”) to the extent the distributions exceed E&P.

Distributions we pay to a non-U.S. unitholder will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or withholding tax if the non-U.S. unitholder is not engaged in a U.S. trade or business.

For more detailed tax commentary, please refer to our Annual Report.

The chart below describes the total distributions made by HMLP in 2023 and the reporting of such distributions on Form 1099.

Please note that the determination of whether these distributions constitute a dividend from E&P, or a ROC is not made for U.S. federal income tax purposes until the end of the fiscal year. If you are a U.S. unitholder and you received a Form 1099 that does not set forth such amounts, you should contact your broker or tax advisor.

Unitholders are directed to consult their own tax advisors to determine the appropriate treatment with respect to the distributions.
