

Alan Colberg
President and Chief Executive Officer

Alan Colberg is the president and chief executive officer of Assurant, Inc. and a director of the company's board of directors. He was named president on Sept. 16, 2014, and assumed the role of CEO and director on Jan. 1, 2015.

Colberg is responsible for building a stronger Assurant for the future and driving profitable growth that leads to outperformance for Assurant's customers, employees and shareholders. Under his leadership, in April 2015, Assurant realigned its business strategy to build upon its core capabilities and further capitalize on global trends in the housing and lifestyle protection markets. The strategy includes a sharper focus on understanding consumers in order to deliver integrated products and services that address their needs and generate opportunities for growth.

Colberg champions innovation and an enterprise mindset of working collaboratively across the organization in order to better serve customers around the world.

Richard Dziadzio
Chief Financial Officer

Richard Dziadzio is the executive vice president and chief financial officer for Assurant, Inc. and a member of the company's management committee. In this role, Dziadzio oversees Assurant's global finance operation and is responsible for the business segment finance teams, asset management and tax functions. Reporting to Assurant's CEO, he is responsible for leading and integrating the company's global finance organization, working in close alignment with Assurant's operations and risk functions. He will help guide the transformation of the company's finance organization, ensuring its coordinated approach in both the housing and lifestyle markets across the company's geographic footprint and in alignment with the operations and risk functions to drive long-term profitable growth.

Robert Lonergan Chief Strategy Officer

Robert Lonergan is the executive vice president and chief strategy officer of Assurant, Inc. and a member of the company's management committee. In this role, he is responsible for shaping the company's enterprise strategy with a focus on driving long-term profitable growth at Assurant.

During his tenure at Assurant, Lonergan has helped lead 17 merger and acquisition transactions and growth investments that have helped the company refocus its business strategy on the global housing and lifestyle markets. Prior to his appointment as chief strategy officer, he served as the senior vice president of growth and innovation, and led a team responsible for driving growth initiatives across the enterprise with a buy, build, invest and partner strategy. In that role, he also established a team to identify opportunities for investing in high-growth potential, early-stage companies to generate both strategic and financial returns for Assurant. Prior to that role, he served as the vice president of sourcing establishing an M&A sourcing function to ensure the strategic alignment of transactions with the company's business strategy and to adopt a proactive mindset in regard to M&A deals.

Michael Campbell President, Global Housing

Michael Campbell is the president of the Global Housing business unit of Assurant, Inc. and a member of the company's management committee. In this role, he oversees Assurant's lender-placed insurance, multifamily housing, specialty, flood and voluntary home insurance business lines, which generated nearly $2.0 billion in revenue in 2018.

Previously, Campbell served as the executive vice president and chief operating officer for the company's Specialty Property lines of business, managing day-to-day operations and leading major transformation initiatives. He joined Assurant in 2006 through the acquisition of Safeco's FIS subsidiary.

Kathy McDonald
President, Global Specialty

Kathy McDonald, CPA, is the president of the Global Specialty business unit of Assurant, Inc. and a member of the company's management committee. In this role, she manages the company's Multifamily Housing business unit and other service lines, including renters, manufactured housing, equipment, shared economy, shipping insurance and antique auto insurance business lines, overseeing marketing, product development, client management, operations and profitability.

McDonald joined Assurant in 1989 in a finance role and since has held a series of leadership positions, including vice president of client management and senior vice president and business unit leader of Assurant's Property Solutions. Her expertise in driving profitable growth across the business propelled her rapid development within the organization. McDonald started her career with Assurant and later worked with Price Waterhouse in taxation. She was promoted to her current role in 2016.

Keith Demmings
President, Global Lifestyle

Keith Demmings is the president of the Global Lifestyle business unit of Assurant, Inc. and a member of the company's management committee. He is responsible for setting strategy, driving financial performance and leading Assurant's Connected Living lines of business, comprised of mobile phone and extended protection plan products and related services, as well as vehicle protection, credit protection and assistance services lines of business. Assurant's Global Lifestyle business serves more than 270 million customers worldwide and generated more than $5.1 billion in revenue in 2018.

Since joining Assurant in 1997, Demmings has held a series of executive leadership positions, including serving as president and CEO of Assurant's Canadian business, the company's largest operation outside of the United States. He served in this role for eight years, adding additional responsibility for Asia operations during that tenure.

Manny Becerra
President, Wireless, Connected Living

Manny Becerra is the president of Global Connected Living at Assurant. He is responsible for the overall performance of the business, which delivers comprehensive services, support and protection for the connected consumer.

Under Becerra's direction, the company invests heavily in consumer research and product development in an effort to better understand customer needs and emerging industry trends. Valuable insights gained from this research help Assurant clients meet the needs of their customers.

Francesca Luthi
Chief Communication & Marketing Officer

Francesca Luthi is the executive vice president, chief communication and marketing officer of Assurant, Inc. and a member of the company's management committee. In this role, she oversees all aspects of Assurant's global brand and marketing strategy, customer experience, internal and external communication, corporate social responsibility and investor relations. She is responsible for building the company's global brand and reputation among key stakeholders, driving consumer awareness and engagement for Assurant's specialty products and services.

Kunal Malhotra

Vice President, Global Specialty Innovation

Kunal Malhotra is the vice president of product development and innovation for Assurant. In this role, Malhotra leads the shared/on-demand economy group with a focus on providing risk solutions in fast-growing markets with unmet insurance needs.

Reporting to the leader of Assurant's Global Specialty business unit, Malhotra serves as the general manager for a portfolio of innovation products that he and his team have developed. With a focus on shared mobility, shared accommodations (vacation rentals) and shipping insurance, his team continues to evaluate trends, emerging business models and technologies to identify new markets for growth and the opportunity to create innovative insurance products.

Paul Sims

Senior Vice President, National Automotive Accounts and Digital

Paul Sims is the senior vice president of digital automotive and national accounts with Assurant's Global Automotive business. He leads the development of a digital and alternative distribution channel business as well as managing key strategic automotive accounts.

Sims joined Assurant with the acquisition of The Warranty Group, where he was the executive vice president of strategic partnerships. He was responsible for helping grow the company's business in the digital automotive space, building and managing strategic partnerships.

