

El Paso Electric Company
A Texas corporation
(the “Company”)

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter

As Amended February 1, 2018
Originally Adopted November 13, 2003

Purpose

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) is created by the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) to:

- identify individuals qualified to become Board members, and recommend to the Board director nominees for election at the next annual or special meeting of shareholders at which directors are to be elected or to fill any vacancies or newly created directorships that may occur between such meetings;
- recommend directors for appointment to Board committees;
- make recommendations to the Board as to determinations of director independence;
- evaluate Board performance;
- oversee and set compensation for the Company’s directors;
- develop and recommend to the Board the Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Ethics of the Company and oversee compliance with such Guidelines and Code; and
- review, approve and oversee transactions between the Company and any related person (as defined in Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K) in accordance with the Company’s Related Person Transaction Policy.

Membership

The Committee shall consist of at least three members, comprised solely of independent directors meeting the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. The independent members of the Board shall recommend nominees for appointment to the Committee annually and as vacancies or newly created positions occur. Committee members shall be appointed by the Board and may be removed by the Board at any time. The Committee shall recommend to the Board, and the Board shall designate, the Chair of the Committee.

Authority and Responsibilities

In addition to any other responsibilities which may be assigned from time to time by the Board, the Committee is responsible for the following matters.

Board/Committee Nominees

- The Committee shall oversee searches for and identify qualified individuals for membership on the Board.
- The Committee shall establish criteria for Board and Board committee membership, including as to director independence, and shall recommend individuals for membership on the Board and directors for appointment to the committees of the Board. In making its recommendations, the Committee shall:
 - review candidates' qualifications for membership on the Board or a committee of the Board (including a determination as to the independence of the candidate) based on the criteria established by the Committee (and taking into account the enhanced independence, financial literacy and financial expertise standards that may be required under law or New York Stock Exchange rules for audit committee and compensation committee membership purposes, as applicable);
 - develop qualification criteria for Board members, which shall include personal and professional integrity, experience, skills, ability and willingness to devote the time and effort necessary to be an effective Board member, and commitment to acting in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders and consideration shall be given to the need for a range among the directors of business experience, diversity, professional skills, geographic representation and other qualities the Board considers important in light of the Company's business plan;
 - in evaluating current directors for re-nomination to the Board or re-appointment to any Board committees, assess the performance of such director;
 - periodically review the composition of the Board and its committees in light of the current challenges and needs of the Company, the Board and each committee, and determine whether it may be appropriate to add or remove individuals after considering issues of judgment, diversity, age, skills, background and experience;

- consider rotation of committee members and committee Chairs; and
- consider any other factors that are set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines or are deemed appropriate by the Committee.
- The Committee shall review and evaluate persons nominated by the Company's shareholders to be directors in accordance with the approved director qualification criteria. The Company's bylaws set forth the requirements to be met by a shareholder wishing to nominate a director.

Director Independence

- Conduct a review of the independence of each Board member and provide its findings and make recommendations to the Board regarding director independence.

Evaluating the Board and Its Committees

- At least annually, the Committee shall lead the Board in a self-evaluation to determine whether it and its committees are functioning effectively. The Committee shall oversee the evaluation process and report on such process and the results of the evaluations, including any recommendations for proposed changes, to the Board.
- At least annually, the Committee shall review the evaluations of the Committee's performance and based on such review, consider any recommendations for proposed changes to the Board.
- At least annually, the Committee shall review the evaluations prepared by each other Board committee of such committee's performance and based on such review, consider any recommendations for proposed changes to the Board.
- The Committee shall periodically review the size and responsibilities of the Board and its committees and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.

Director Compensation

- The Committee shall review and approve compensation (including stock option grants and other equity-based compensation) for the Company's directors. In so reviewing and approving director compensation, the Committee shall:

- identify corporate goals and objectives relevant to director compensation;
- evaluate the performance of the Board in light of such goals and objectives and set director compensation based on such evaluation and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation);
- determine any long-term incentive component of director compensation based on the awards given to directors in past years, the Company's performance, shareholder return and the value of similar incentive awards relative to such targets at comparable companies and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation); and
- evaluate the possibility that directors' independence may be compromised for Board or committee purposes if director compensation exceeds customary levels, if the Company makes substantial charitable contributions to an organization with which a director is affiliated, or if the company enters into consulting contracts with (or provides other indirect forms of compensation to) a director or an organization with which a director is affiliated (which consulting contracts or other indirect forms of compensation are expressly prohibited for Audit Committee members).

Corporate Governance Matters

- The Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Ethics. At least annually, the Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Ethics and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.
- The Committee shall be responsible for any tasks assigned to it in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.
- The Committee shall oversee compliance with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Ethics and report on such compliance to the Board. The Committee shall also review and consider any requests for waivers of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines or Code of Ethics for the Company's directors, executive officers and other senior financial officers, and shall make a recommendation to the Board with respect to such request for a waiver.

- The Committee shall review potential conflicts of interest involving directors and shall determine whether such director or directors may vote on any issue as to which there may be a conflict.
- The Committee shall review, approve and oversee transactions between the Company and any related person (as defined in Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K) in accordance with the Company's Related Person Transaction Policy.

Director Orientation and Continuing Education

- The Committee shall direct and review orientation and continuing education programs for directors.

Reporting to the Board

- The Committee shall report to the Board periodically. This report shall include a review of any recommendations or issues that arise with respect to Board or committee nominees or membership, Board performance, corporate governance or any other matters that the Committee deems appropriate or is requested to be included by the Board.
- At least annually, the Committee shall evaluate its own performance and report to the Board on such evaluation.
- The Committee shall periodically review and assess the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

Procedures

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities under this charter. The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with the other Committee members, shall determine the frequency and length of the Committee meetings and shall set meeting agendas consistent with this charter.

The Committee shall have the sole authority to (i) retain and terminate any compensation consultant engaged to assist in the evaluation of outside director compensation, including sole authority to approve the consultant's fees and other retention terms; (ii) retain and terminate any search firm engaged to assist in identifying director candidates, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms; and (iii) retain and obtain advice and assistance from current or independent legal, accounting or other advisors, including sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms with respect thereto. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or independent auditors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or advisors to, the Committee.

The Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees or the Chair of the Committee when it deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.
