II. STATEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

The Company's philosophy in setting its compensation policies for executive officers is to attract and retain key executive talent that maximizes shareholder value over time. Nothing herein shall require any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to be independent, only that the Compensation Committee consider the six independence factors enumerated above before selecting, or receiving advice from, such a compensation adviser. However, the Compensation Committee is not required to consider the foregoing factors if the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser's services are limited to consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers or directors and that is generally available to all salaried employees or providing information that is either not customized for the Company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the adviser, and about which the adviser does not provide advice.
