WOW! HONORED WITH MULTIPLE WORKPLACE AWARDS

Company receives national recognition plus seven regional honors

ENGLEWOOD, CO – (November 27, 2012) -- WOW! Internet, Cable & Phone is celebrating eight national and regional honors for being among the best places to work in several different locations.

Topping the list is WOW!'s inclusion in the National Association for Business Resources 2012 list of National Best and Brightest Companies to Work For. This is the second consecutive year WOW! has received the national honor. NABR represents more than 20,000 small- to medium-sized businesses.

In addition, WOW! has received the following regional awards:

- Detroit Free Press: Top Workplaces honoree
- Colorado Biz – WOW! ranked #5 among the Top 250 Private Companies in Colorado.
- The Plain Dealer (Cleveland): WOW! ranked #8 in the small companies category of Top Workplaces in Northeast Ohio.
- Columbus (Ohio) Business First: Best Places to Work award, top ten mid-sized businesses
- Chicago Tribune: Top 100 Places to Work

The awards follow two previously announced 2012 regional honors:

- National Association for Business Resources: Chicagoland's 101 Best and Brightest Places to Work
- Indiana Chamber of Commerce: Best Places to Work in Indiana 2012 Award – large companies category, honoring WOW!'s Evansville, IN office.

WOW! Chief Executive Officer and Chairwoman of the Board Colleen Abdoulah said, "At WOW! we know that our customers are served best by employees who feel supported and motivated to do their best. This is the environment we create every day. So it is tremendously gratifying to see those efforts validated by our business success and by prestigious awards like these."
