Internet, Cable & Phone Provider Among 2013 Best Places to Work

COLUMBUS, OH – (October 29, 2013) -- WOW! Internet, Cable & Phone is celebrating its third consecutive recognition by Columbus Business First as one of central Ohio's Best Places to Work. WOW!'s 231 Columbus-based employees serve customers in and around the city. The company was previously honored in 2011 and 2012.

To determine Central Ohio's Best Places to Work, Columbus Business First collaborated with Quantum Workplace to gather opinions from workers of the companies and nonprofit institutions that became candidates for the Best Places to Work award. Awards are given in four categories: Large companies with more than 500 local employees; medium companies with 100 to 499 local employees; small companies with between 25 and 99 workers; and micro companies with 10 to 24. WOW! is one of 9 honorees in the medium category.

WOW! Vice President and General Manager Greg Argetsinger said, "WOW! wholeheartedly believes that our customers are best served by employees who feel supported and motivated to do their best. We work to create that environment every day, and it's an honor that those efforts have been confirmed again with this prestigious award."
